Ahmed Ali is a Hamtramck native and has lived in the city his whole life. He graduated from Hamtramck High School in 2014, and then went on to the University of Michigan where he received his B.S. in Microbiology in 2018. After graduating, he spent two years working with WCHC in several positions including Medical Receptionist, Outreach Counselor, and Quality Director. He left WCHC in 2020 to pursue medical school at Oakland University where currently studying. He hopes to return to serve the city as a Primary Care Physician upon completing his training.
