

MAALI LUQMAN

BOARD CHAIR

Maali Luqman is the Deputy City Manager of the city of Hamtramck. She is an alumna of the W.K. Kellogg Foundation & Center for Creative Leadership's Community Leadership Network; and WKKF Global Fellow. As a community leader, she was also one of the nationwide Legacy Cities Fellows, a Fellowship through the Lincoln Institute that focuses on revitalization of industrial cities throughout the country. She served as a District Associate Dean at the largest community college district in Michigan and a teacher throughout Michigan and abroad. She secured nearly 7000 votes during her Candidacy for Dearborn Public Schools and Henry Ford College Board of Education and served as a member of the college's Board of Trustee ad-HOC committee. Maali was appointed to serve on the first ever Wayne County Women's Commission, representing Wayne County's 13th district. Maali earned a Bachelor degree in Education from the University of Michigan and a Masters degree in International Relations from Harvard University.

