

Marilyn Rothenberg,
CNM

Marilyn Rothenberg is a nurse-midwife at WCHC. She provides prenatal care, gynecological care, postpartum care, and family planning services. She collaborates with the Hutzel Women's Health Specialists for births, high-risk pregnancies, and deliveries. Her favorite aspect of working with patients is seeing mothers become empowered and observing changes as they learn how to become mothers and families together. Her favorite aspect of the community is the cohesiveness among family and neighbors, especially in their activism. In her free time, she enjoys walking, knitting, crocheting, and biking.
